- 22.5 If a Party is in material breach of this Agreement (including failure to pay an undisputed sum due hereunder), the other Party may serve a written notice (the "breach notice") on the Party in breach specifying the breach and requiring it to be remedied within:
- thirty (30) calendar days from the date of receipt of such breach notice; or
 - in case of emergency (excluding financial obligations) within such shorter period as the Party not in breach may reasonably specify.
- 22.6 If the Party in breach fails to remedy the breach within such period as may be specified by the Party not in breach pursuant to clause 22.5 the Party not in 25.5 If the Parties fail to reach agreement on the subject matter of a review Notice issued cf. clauses 25.1 and 25.2 within three (3) calendar months (the "relevant period") in each case from the date of service of such review Notice, either Party may, not later than one calendar month after the expiration of the relevant period, request in writing Telestyrelsen to determine any matter within the authority of Telestyrelsen pursuant to the Telecommunication Regulation. Any such matter not being referred to Telestyrelsen within this one calendar month shall be deemed withdrawn and hence resolved between the Parties.

In performing those of its obligations not affected by a force majeure, the Party initially affected by a force majeure shall deploy its resources such that (when taken together with other obligations to its End-Customers and Third Parties) there is no undue discrimination against the other Party.
- 26.5 To the extent that a Party is prevented as a result of a force majeure from providing all of the Services to be provided under this Agreement, the other Party shall be released to the equivalent extent from its obligations to make payment for such Services or complying with its obligations in relation thereto.

- 27.2 Tusass may demand financial security pursuant to clause 27.1 at an amount corresponding to the charges payable for the forecasted or actual usage of Services equal to two (2) quarters. Tusass may at any time demand an increase in the financial security provided by the Service Taker if the financial security provided no longer corresponds to such charges.
